

W&M - Your Committee recommends that the proper City officers be authorized to execute a two-year contract with the Domestic Abuse Project (DAP), in the amount of $150,000, to provide 24-hour hotline phone services for police officers to call after making a domestic violence related police report in order to connect DAP advocates with domestic violence victims. Funding for said contract will be provided equally from the budgets of the Police Department and the City Attorney's Office.
