

Please excuse the wait

Many of our staff will be in training from now until October 3, 2016
as we prepare to launch a new and improved
Permitting, Licensing, and Inspections System.

How does the new system benefit me?

You will experience less routing of paper and better tracking and reporting of data as City staff will use one system across multiple departments to more efficiently provide permitting, licensing, inspections, and plan review services.

What I need to do?

- Look for new and improved applications and letters from the City on October 3, 2016.
- Applications may ask for different information than you are used to
- Your permit/license number may change, but our system can track your historical records.
- Please be patient with staff as they learn to use the new system.

You may experience temporary increased wait times

Staff will be in training August-October preparing for the launch to ensure a smooth transition. We apologize for any additional wait time this may cause and appreciate your patience.
