Background/Analysis:

The City of Minneapolis will be hosting major events in the coming years, and the Minneapolis Police Department will need to increase the creation of ID cards for security and safety purposes. Because of this high volume of activity, a grant was given to the Minneapolis Police to purchase additional equipment for creation of the Minneapolis ID cards.

The services provided by IdentiSys are critical to the Minneapolis Police Department, and the continuity of these ID cards will be key while conducting Public Safety in Minneapolis during the upcoming major events. This system is not only used for ID cards, but may be utilized for issuance of official credentials for all public safety personnel working the Super Bowl ten day operational period.

Financial Review:

No additional appropriation required, amount included in current budget.
